About our School

Escola Internacional de Torres Vedras is a private school offering its students three pathways to excellence: the National Curriculum, the National Curriculum + the American High School Diploma, and the Cambridge International Curriculum.

We are currently seeking teachers for various subjects and stages, for the Cambridge International Curriculum.

What skills and experience we're looking for in teachers:

- Teachers who hold a passionate commitment to providing excellence and a desire to strengthen our students' abilities to learn, helping them to excel and achieve high-quality performance and become global citizens, technologically prepared for an ever-changing world.

Therefore, candidates must:

- ✓ Understand both the school's vision and mission and the Cambridge pathway and philosophy
- ✓ Be well-qualified and talented (former experience is a plus)
- ✓ Know how to deliver Cambridge programmes effectively
- ✓ Know subject and curriculum content and how to teach it
- ✓ Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of students and how they learn
- ✓ Implement effective planning, teaching, learning and assessment practice
- ✓ Demonstrate innovative and effective classroom practice
- ✓ Create and maintain a safe and inclusive learning environment
- ✓ Engage professionally with parents and communities
- ✓ Be enthusiastic and dedicated professionals
- ✓ Ensure progress for all students
- ✓ Have organisational skills

What the school offers

- ✓ Safe environment
- ✓ Good working conditions and high-quality resources
- ✓ Supportive team
- ✓ Professional development
- ✓ Health benefits for the employee

Visits to the school are warmly welcomed and highly recommended.

If you're interested in teaching at our school, please email Eunice.bessa@eitv.pt (Admissions Officer) to arrange a visit and/or send your Resumé to info@eitv.pt.
